

Supplementary Figure 5. Transverse tubule invaginations penetrate from the surface sarcolemma deep into the cell center of human atrial myocytes. STED imaging based on WGA and anti-Cav3 co-staining of 4 μm thick histological sections of human right atrial tissue. The STED images show an example of a transverse section through a human atrial myocyte. Scale bar 2 μm .